

Sunday 4th August – Evening Prayer meeting (Season of prayer kick off)

To re-dig the wells. So many have been stopped up, they need to be cleared of rubble so that they may flow with the water of life.

He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things? (Rom 8:32) We need to understand and appropriate it for us as a body.

We need to continue to preach the gospel. We need to praise God for promises yet to be fulfilled and trust God to fulfil them.

What does it mean to re-dig the wells? If it is corporate, show the body and the leaders. If it is individual then show us as individuals what it means. Let that Word, out of our bellies shall flow living waters, be true for each of us.

That river spake of the Spirit. The charismatic renewal was spoken of, how the Spirit was poured out mightily. Dave prayed that we would once again be filled that mightily again.

Cause me to drink from thy river O Lord, Cause to me to come, Cause me to Drink, Cause me to live. (Song)

Picture of a battlefield. The ground was muddy, soldiers are strewn faced down in the mud, wearing royal robes. Someone is wandering around in a simple white robe, picking people up who are maimed but not dead. God is declaring His hope. Hope to make the dead rise again, the wounded healed and the downcast set free. That God would take the fog of uncertainty away.

It is God's will for us to know His will. He wants us to hear from Him.

What does it mean to "Wake up", "Rise up" and "Go ye"?

We will seek and find Him when we seek Him with all of our hearts.

Shekinah glory..... 2 Chronicles 7:19 etc.

Jackie shared that God stopped her petition and encouraged her to be still and listen. This morning the Lord dropped this scripture into her heart. Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's.

I saw the Lord with His hand out asking us to hold His hand and walk with Him. Some of us heard the call but were distracted by other things. These things were not bad things, but they weren't what God was wanting to show us. Others had their hands so full of stuff that they couldn't take God by the hand. Others had earphones on and were listening to loud music and couldn't hear anything but the music. Others didn't even recognise God in front of their very eyes. "O that we would see, hear, discern, trust and obey".

There are so many voices. We must tune in to listen to the Holy Spirit individually and corporately. Fresh manna every day. Once filled, we need to know how to go out in obedience to the community.

Over the next month we need to still our soul and listen to the Holy Spirit's still small voice.

Picture of a person running hard. The scene expanded and she was on a treadmill. They were getting absolutely nowhere but using so much energy. I believe this speaks of man's efforts which ultimately are unfruitful. We need to get off the treadmill, stop, listen and run the race SET BEFORE US. Not the rat race, not man's race etc.

Dave Meath saw a home with an internet connection which said “No connection”. The WiFi was switched off. We need to go back to the source and get plugged in again, so that our connection is alive and active.
